On December 27, 2020, President Trump signed the Coronavirus Response and Relief Supplemental Appropriations Act, 2021 (“CRRSAA”), Pub. L. 116-260, which provided $22.7 billion for the Higher Education Emergency Relief Reli.18.9(ber e)-5rSH323

Subsequently, President Biden signed the American Rescue Plan (“ARP”), Pub. L. 117-2, on March 11, 2021, providing an additional $39.6 billion in support to institutions of higher education to serve students and ensure learning continued during the COVID-19 pandemic. Of this amount, approximately $396 million was made available for proprietary institutions of higher education to be used for emergency financial aid grants to students. Lincoln Technical Institute* (“LTI”), New Britain, Connecticut, received a portion of these funds from the CRRSAA and ARP that LTI is required by law to send directly to eligible students.

In addition, LTI was required to sign a Certification and Agreement in order to access funds under the HEERF program. This Certification and Agreement requires each institution applying for HEERF funds to comply with later than 30 days from the
